

STAFF SUMMARY FOR APRIL 13-14, 2016

3. ELECTRONIC REPORTING OF MARINE LOGBOOKS (consent)Today's ItemInformation Action

Adopt change requirement for maintaining fishing activity records and logbooks

Summary of Previous/Future Actions

- Notice hearing Feb 10-11, 2016; Sacramento
- Today's Adoption hearing Apr 13-14, 2016; Santa Rosa

Background

Current regulations require the owners and operators of commercial fishing vessels, holders of commercial fishing licenses or permits participating in specified fisheries, and the owners and license holders of commercial passenger fishing vessels, to keep and submit complete and accurate records of fishing activities on paper "logbooks" provided by DFW. Due to advances in computer and internet technology and the use of handheld devices by many businesses, including the fishing industry, it is necessary that DFW update its processes to permit electronic reporting.

Electronic reporting of fishing activities will result in both time and financial savings by the industry. In addition, more accurate and timely electronic reporting of fish harvest will enable DFW to better monitor the fishing effort and make sound scientific management decisions. Therefore, DFW proposes revisions to Section 190, Title 14, CCR, which requires the keeping of fishing records. The proposed revisions add that such records may be kept and submitted electronically on the DFW website. Whether on paper or in electronic form, the information collected is the same. The regulation further clarifies that it is necessary to keep the logbook aboard the vessel and available for inspection when requested by DFW.

Notice was published on Feb 26 and we have not received any public comment to date. However, upon a courtesy review of the file by OAL some concerns about clarity and authority were raised. To cite and clarify the proper authority, enhance consistency with Fish and Game Code, and to improve the enforceability of the regulation, staff prepared a 15-day Continuation Notice which was published and distributed on Mar 28 (Exhibit 2). A DFW summary of minor amendments made to the Amended ISOR are provided in Exhibit 1.

Significant Public Comments (N/A)Recommendation

FGC staff: Adopt proposed changes as recommended by DFW.

DFW: Adopt proposed changes.

Subject: RE: 190 Electronic Marine Logbooks Revisions to Text
Date: Friday, April 01, 2016 2:00:51 PM

Hi Caren,

I hope the following will suffice as a statement from the Department. Katie is out until next Thursday, which is too late for the binder.

Minor amendments were made to the proposed regulatory text and the Initial Statement of Reasons for the Electronic Logbooks rulemaking scheduled for adoption at the April 2016 Commission meeting. The changes were needed to:

1. Clarify that logbooks must be surrendered upon demand to a peace officer of the Department, and
2. Delete subsection 190(e) to meet the nonduplication standard of the Administrative Procedure Act. This subsection duplicates provisions in existing Fish and Game Code Section 8022 and is therefore unnecessary.

The changes are sufficiently related to the original proposal that a 15-day continuation notice is required. The continuation notice was posted and distributed on March 28, 2016, with adoption still scheduled for the April Meeting. No other changes are under consideration at this time and no public comments on the proposal have been received to date.

Please let me know if you need anything else on this package.

Thanks,

Craig

The Department has embarked on a comprehensive series of projects to develop electronic reporting for commercial marine fisheries. When completed, the projects will include web based user interfaces that offer commercial fishermen the option to submit electronic fishing activity records instead of paper logs.

Subsection 195(a) of the current regulations, Commercial Passenger Fishing Vessels (CPFV), needs to clearly reference the requirements as specified in amended Section 190. The forms for CPFV, DFW195A and 195B with instructions, are incorporated by reference in order to reduce redundancy; therefore, it will not be necessary to duplicate the forms in Appendix A of Title 14.

The first electronic logbook to be developed is the CPFV logbook. The CPFV electronic log has been tested in the field by a group of commercial fishermen and is ready to be used throughout the State. Screenshots of the new electronic form 195 are attached as Exhibit A.

Transitioning from paper logs to electronic logs will provide several benefits to commercial fishermen and the Department including:

1. Time savings by reducing the amount of time spent completing, packaging and mailing logs to the Department;
2. Ease of record storage and maintenance for business purposes;
3. Built-in checks and validations in electronic logs will result in more accurate fisheries data on which the Department and the Commission can base management decisions.
4. Use of electronic logs will likely result in more timely submission and improved compliance with log submission requirements, again resulting in more accurate fisheries data.
5. Electronic logs will provide for ease of information storage, data manipulation for research, production for legal reasons and information sharing with other fishery management agencies and law enforcement.
6. Use of electronic logs will result in reduced costs for the Department by eliminating the design, printing and distribution costs of printed logbooks and a decrease in the cost of data editing and entry.

Without the proposed regulatory changes, electronic logs will not serve in lieu of paper logs, operators will still be required to submit paper logs for all fishing activities, and the benefits identified with electronic reporting will not be realized.

If the original regulations are retained, the Department will not be able to conduct business using the internet and commercial fishers will continue to use paper forms to record their fishing activities.

(c) Consideration of Alternatives:

In view of information currently possessed, no reasonable alternative considered would be more effective in carrying out the purpose for which the regulation is proposed, would be as effective and less burdensome to affected private persons than the proposed regulation, or would be more cost effective to affected private persons and equally effective in implementing the statutory policy or other provision of law.

V. Mitigation Measures Required by Regulatory Action:

The cumulative effects of the changes statewide are expected to be neutral with regard to the state's environment.

(g) Other Benefits of the Regulation:

Operators will save time associated with completing, packaging and mailing hardcopy forms to the Department. Electronic records of fishing activities will be easier to maintain for business purposes. Operators will be able to use electronic records to comply with fishing activity reporting requirements of the Mexican government for those California vessels fishing south of the border. The Department will experience a savings in staff time associated with editing and entering hardcopy forms into an electronic database. With built-in checks and validations, electronic fishing records will provide the Department and the Commission with more accurate data on which to base management decisions.

Informative Digest/Policy Statement Overview

Current regulations in Title 14, CCR, require that the owners and operators of commercial fishing vessels, holders of commercial fishing licenses or permits participating in specified fisheries, and the owners and license holders of commercial passenger fishing vessels, keep and submit complete and accurate records of fishing activities on paper “logbooks” provided by the Department. Due to advances in computer and internet technology and the use of handheld devices by many businesses, including the fishing industry, it is necessary that the Department update its processes.

Proposed Regulations

- Section 190 is amended to add that records may be completed and submitted on the Department’s web site at <https://apps.wildlife.ca.gov/marinelogs>.
 - Other minor revisions are proposed which clarify that the participant may choose either electronic or paper format but not both.
 - That fishing activity records shall be called logbooks which is the common term for these reports.
 - ~~Logbooks shall be made available to authorized representatives of the department for inspection. Logbooks shall be immediately surrendered upon demand to a peace officer of the department.~~
 - ~~Repeal existing subsection (e) because the language repeats provisions provided in code and is therefore unnecessary.~~
 - The subsections have been edited and renumbered for clarity.
- Subsection 195(a) is amended providing that records are to be kept “pursuant to Section 190”
 - The subject forms, with instructions, are incorporated by reference, and the provision that the forms appear in Appendix A is deleted.
 - The current provisions in subsections (a)(1)-(5) are deleted because they appear in the form instructions.
 - The subsections have been edited and renumbered for clarity.
- Forms DFW 195A and DFW 195B have been updated and incorporated by reference in regulation.
 - The instructions have been edited to include the deleted language from current regulation which relates only to the use of the forms, including subsections (a)(1), (a)(2), (a)(3), (a)(4), and (a)(5).
 - The revision date will be 01/16.

BENEFITS OF THE PROPOSED REGULATIONS

Permitting the use of electronic reporting is in line with the increasing use of computer and internet technology and the use of handheld devices by many businesses including the fishing industry. The proposed regulations could reduce the time required for making reports and will improve the accuracy of the data. Additionally, electronic reporting will improve the Department’s data collection and ability to monitor and manage fish populations.

EVALUATION OF INCOMPATIBILITY WITH EXISTING REGULATIONS:

Section 20, Article IV, of the State Constitution specifies that the Legislature may delegate to the Fish and Game Commission such powers relating to the protection and propagation of fish and game as the Legislature sees fit. The Legislature has delegated to the Commission the power to regulate the activities of commercial fishing vessels and to monitor the take of fish. The Commission has searched the CCR for any regulations regarding other authority and has found no such regulation; therefore the Commission has concluded that the proposed regulations are neither inconsistent nor incompatible with existing State regulations.

The holder of a Commercial Passenger Fishing Vessel (CPFV) license is required to complete and submit to CDFW an accurate record of their fishing activities, including when no fishing occurred in a month.

The application on this website allows the CPFV license holder to manage accounts for vessel(s) and for CPFV license holders and CPFV operators to create, submit, and view their logs for fishing activity records electronically.

Otherwise the CPFV license holder and/or CPFV operator must complete and submit paper logs from logbooks provided by CDFW.

The authority to collect this information is granted pursuant to Fish and Game Code Sections 7823 and 8026 and California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 105. CPFV catch information is used by CDFW for resource analysis and resource management.
