

Tribal Committee, Agenda item 7

DRAFT Vision Statement on co-management

Recognizing tribal jurisdiction over wildlife resources within tribal lands, the tribal committees vision is to improve management of California wildlife through sharing information, consultation, planning, management, and partnership in decision making for certain species related to the tribes customary and traditional practices, including subsistence fishing and gathering of river and marine biota and plant materials for food, basketry or other traditional tribal purposes, including ceremonial and religious purposes.