Add Section 662
Title 14, California Code of Regulations
Re: Petitions for Regulation Change

The proposed regulation outlines the process under which petitions will be evaluated and scheduled for receipt and Commission action, and require the use of form FGC 1 for submitting regulation change proposals.

Effects of the Regulation on the Creation or Elimination of Jobs within the State:

The Commission does not anticipate any impacts on the creation or elimination of jobs within the State because the proposed regulation only affects the process through which the Commission will receive and consider petitions for regulation change.

Effects of the Regulation on the Creation of New Businesses or the Elimination of Existing Businesses within the State:

The Commission does not anticipate any impacts on the creation of new businesses or the elimination of existing businesses within the State because the proposed regulation only affects the process through which the Commission will receive and consider petitions for regulation change.

Effects of the Regulation on the Expansion of Businesses Currently Doing Business within the State:

The Commission does not anticipate any impacts on the expansion of businesses currently doing business within the State because the proposed regulation only affects the process through which the Commission will receive and consider petitions for regulation change.

Benefits of the Regulation to the Health and Welfare of California Residents:

The Commission does not anticipate any benefits to the health and welfare of California residents because the proposed regulation only affects the process through which the Commission will receive and consider petitions for regulation change.

Benefits of the Regulation to Worker Safety:

The Commission does not anticipate any impacts to worker safety because the proposed regulation will not affect working conditions.

Benefits of the Regulation to the Environment:

The Commission does not anticipate any benefits to the environment because the proposed regulation only affects the process through which the Commission will receive and consider petitions for regulation change.

Benefits of the Regulation to the Openness and Transparency in Government:

The Commission anticipates that the proposed regulation will increase transparency and understanding of the Commission's regulatory process and consistency in the processing of public requests for regulation change.
